Relax in luxury in Morocco's premier beach and golf development

Cabo Negro Beach & Golf Resort

WHY MOROCCO!

Morocco is already making a name for itself as a new hotspot for the world's property investors.

The luxurious new property developments are generally accepted to be of the highest standards available and the very competitive prices mean that Morocco can boast top quality property in 5 star luxury resorts for a fraction of the price of property of far less quality elsewhere.

It is not surprising that Morocco is widely tipped to become a new elite holiday destination. The destination is expected to attract vast numbers of tourists into the luxury resorts on short term holidays generating excellent rental yields for the investors who own these properties

Capital Growth Predictions:

Many sources offer different views on what is expected to happen to the value of new Moroccan property in the newly constructed resorts. There are some differences in opinion as always but the one common factor is that prices are expected to rise and at a rate that will please investors. The growth rate has been quoted as being around 30% (Homes Overseas Magazine) but as a more conservative estimate 15% is expected as being very achievable.

Rental Yield Predictions:

Rental income from Morocco based property is also of great interest to investors as good rental yields are achievable from property in the new luxury resorts being constructed. It is expected that mortgage payments and bills can be covered for the year from the rental income achieved from the peak season months alone. Peak season months are classed as June - September and rental based on a 2 bed apartment costing around €100,000 is expected to be around €2,000 per month.

With 85% rental occupancy currently during the high season and the number of tourists set to grow faster than the amount of available accommodation this figure is expected to grow not drop meaning even larger occupancy levels for investors and even potential growth in rental prices as demand increases.

The major catalyst behind the huge growth in Morocco's tourist industry and the massive amount of overseas investment into the stunning new luxury property developments is the massive national development plan devised by King Mohammed VI in conjunction with the UAE. This project called "Vision 2010" was launched with the purpose of drastically increasing number of annual tourist visitors. In fact the goal was more specific than this to increase tourism by 5 times by 2010 to 10 Million visitors and generate 600,000 new jobs in the process. This very ambitious project was presented by the new and young King Mohammed VI in 2001.
